See Through

The media, they lie to you. Distort and confuse the images of truth. These days no-one knows what's right. Stop to think, and think for yourself. Look around everything looks okay, but when you look closer you feel like turning away. It feels like I'm fighting an 80 storey wall. But the bigger they are the harder they fall.

Why can't you see through the lies? Why can't you realize? Just take a look at the world, through our eyes! Too many can't see through the lies. Too many people are messing up there minds. Too many people just can't understand. What's happening inside there head.

The governments plan is to have control. Over the youth=over the world. Through fashion, adverts and all that other trash, they control your mind from when you're young. This is your life were talking about. Is it yours or is it there's? Only you can make people realize. That this world is full of lies!!!

See through, the lies. See through, before you die.....

Last Chance

Wasted time, you waste your life. Can't you see what you're doing to your mind?□It might be cool (for you) at the time, but one day, you gonna die.

If anyone thinks that being high and is so cool and it's the object of Saturday night.

Then why on Earth, the next morning, you feel sick and your stomach's turning?!!!

Infecting your soul, killing yourself. Mind games where will all this go?

You're a stranger to yourself your mind is somewhere else, dependent on something that isn't real. Time is running out - you waste your life - waste your mind - waste your soul - waste your time.□It makes me mad, to see a perfect mind, to go to waste to conform to the norm.□Stay pure live a drug free life. C'mon you know it's right!!!!□If you think that being drugged up is hard-core. □I doubt it you'll last ten seconds on a straightedge dancefloor.

Burn the flames of injustice

Change, a most powerful movement. A tool which can be used...□To make a difference, to make amends To this messed up world and all it's messed up things. Only you, Only me - can burn the flames of injustice. Only you, Only me, can end the misery. □Look, look around and you'll see. What's happening to you and me. Will you stand by and let the world die? Stand defeated, stand weakened? The consequences that we create with our life. Will, be, faced by the next generation. And the way it's going it doesn't look good.

Controlled we're controlled. We've gotta change it. (We gotta face it) We gotta change the world. How do we do this? - change ourselves and slowly the world will too. As we educate As we duplicate (ourselves) into numbers, into forces around the world. Then the world will slowly change the world will change.....

I've got a Conscience

Everywhere I look I see it the filth of this world, killing me I try to ignore but, it-keeps-coming-back-to-me Goddammit I've got a conscience x2

Woman all over the world are kept as slaves used as whores or any other way. Sexism on the adverts i see and read I can't get away my eyes start to bleed.

Entertainment movies seeing people killing one another, is this what life's about i start to shudder Kids on drugs and multiple relationships, is this what life's about ? I don't think so. Eradicate all the filth in this world i won't ignore it 'cos I've got a conscience, I've got a conscience.

We gotta break the chains we gotta free ourselves from the filth of this world we gotta stand up for what is right!!! You run away from the world problems pretending everything's okay You hide under materialistic things to help you through your day. Soap opera's, comedies they've all got the same stories-to make you laugh to make you cry forcing you to live a lie .Your narrow-mindedness is killing the world You never question you just want to live your life but how can you do this if you haven't got a conscience?

Unite

Why do people hate one another, we're all sisters and brothers. When we were young we didn't see colour so why now should we bother. I don't understand how you can hate just cos of the colour of someone's face just think about it - what really separates you to the ones you hate? What you look like-it doesn't matter What colour you are-it doesn't matter What's inside only matters. It only matters what's right and wrong.

It a vicious circle and it continues to cut, the cement is drying and I'm stuck in a rut Everybody just thinks they know what is right and that's how the circle starts to cut. No-one is willing to listen to anyone to talk about the problems that we've done There's no difference between black and white so forget about the past we must unite!!!!!!

Nothing separates you to the ones you hate
